

WEST VIRGINIA CHAPTER
INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF ARSON INVESTIGATORS

2019 DUES NOTICE

On behalf of the West Virginia Chapter of the International Association of Arson Investigators, I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for continued membership and support of our chapter. The West Virginia Chapter of the IAAI consists of some of the finest fire investigation professionals in the state and the nation. Our members are united by a commitment to the suppression of the crime of arson.

Our diverse membership includes a variety of professionals including local, state, and federal law enforcement, professional and volunteer firefighters, fire department investigators, private origin and cause investigators, insurance investigators, engineers, chemists, and attorneys. As we continue to grow, we ask that you please remain actively involved in the Chapter's activities. Our Chapter's success is attributed to the dedication and professionalism of its members.

If you would like to remain a member of the West Virginia Chapter of the IAAI, you may continue your membership for $20 annually, or $50 for a three year membership. Also, please take a moment to fill out the form below so that we may update our records. Please contact Korri Powers at (304)746-2468 or via email at korrih@yahoo.com with any questions regarding your membership status. Dues payment questions or information can be directed to Jon Jorgensen at 304-541-2910 or jonathan.jorgensen@thehartford.com.

Be sure to check www.wviaai.org for updates and more information.
